

Marketing Events

When you really want to find a way to differentiate your next marketing event and make it memorable consider having us set up relaxing and rejuvenating Massage Spa Stations as a focal point for your guests.

At Message Mavens we understand the business aspect of achieving maximum impact with your targeted attendees. Over the years we've found that virtually everyone enjoys the lift and sense of improved focus that comes from spending just 5-10 minutes in the hands of our licensed practitioners. Once they've received their treatment your guests are refreshed and ready to receive your message.

Transcend the limitations of traditional marketing. Target your market by captivating their senses with a relaxation massage. When you create a unique brand experience, consumers remember and they react.

Whether it's a scheduled break time during a Conference or Seminar or you have massage spa stations set up for all day service at your next Customer Appreciation Event or Product Launch you'll find its one of the most popular attractions at your meetings.

We have a highly skilled and licensed team of licensed massage therapists that can vary from a small team up to a full compliment of twenty or more staff that can easily accommodate the your needs from simple Open Houses, Exhibit Booths or Hospitality Suites to the largest Trade Show, Convention, Conference, Expo or Sales & Marketing Events.

Take a moment to contact Message Mavens to find out more about adding some WOW factor to your next Themed Event or Grand Opening. You'll be surprised at how inexpensive such a major treat for a Staff Appreciation event can be whether held at your corporate offices or during Company Golf Tournaments, Corporate Picnics or other Team Building Events.

Call Message Mavens at 203.340.2518 or just send us a quick note via email so we can help you create the most effective way to get your message across to your targeted audience.